The Chicago Artisan Market features the best of Chicago in food, fashion, home goods and art. Our vendors are small businesses run by people who carry on the City's rich history as a "city that works." Railyard Artisan Market is a Place Visitors and Locals Love to Shop "This is better (Railyard Artisan Market) than Canyon Road. You can actually talk to the artist and makers." No Mas! proudly displays works of the renowned photorealist painter of Jalisco, Mexico "Lands of unmatched colors, of unusual people and of surrealistic landscapes ... as Salvador Dali once expressed, of passionately vivid clothing and of unequaled creativity..." Over 6500 sqft. filled with a mix of Antique goods, furniture, Gifts, Decor, collectables, hand made artisan goods and much more! Over 70 vendors including Sweet Briar Antiques, Kelly's Country Store and many other great local businesses and artisans.
